Registration Information

Registrations for Taking Control: Surviving and Thriving: National Lynch Syndrome Symposium 2018 will open in early May

Who Should Attend?

Taking Control: Surviving and Thriving is suitable for all health consumers with Lynch syndrome, their families and supporters.

Taking Control has also been designed to benefit all people working to support those with Lynch syndrome and who would like to better understand how to advise them on managing and minimising their lifetime risk of cancer.

Taking control is a unique event designed to showcase the latest research and best practice in Lynch syndrome cancer risk management and reduction and is of benefit to both health consumers and medical professionals alike:

- People with Lynch syndrome and their families
- Nurses
- Researchers
- Genetics professionals
- General practitioners
- Health management policy-makers
- Cancer support organisations
- Commercial organisations with an interest in cancer management and support

Registration Details

Payment is required at the time of registration. Upon receipt of your registration and payment, you will receive a registration confirmation to the nominated email address.

Only paid registrants will be guaranteed access to the event. Onsite registrations will not be accepted.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations of registrations must be made by email. Refunds will apply as follows:

- More than 30 days before the conference: full refund
- Between 14 days and 30 days before the conference: full refund (less 10% administration fee)
- Less than 14 days before the conference or non-attendance: no refund will be possible
- After Thursday, 16 August: unfortunately, Lynch Syndrome Australia (LSA) cannot give refunds after this date due to fixed cost commitments at the venue. We cannot accept responsibility for changes to work commitments or personal circumstances.

Registrants must take into consideration LSA's status as a not-for-profit organisation run by volunteers and the fact that considerable non-refundable costs involving the venue, food and beverage, presenters etc., are finalised and confirmed, often many weeks, in advance of the conference. Of course, you may nominate a substitute to take your place at no additional cost.

Symposium program

The advertised conference program is correct at the time of publishing both online and in print. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, LSA reserves the right to change the program without notice.

Privacy Statement

If you opt to receive our newsletter your personal details will be retained by LSA for future use in accordance with our privacy policy which can be found on our website.
